

Aubertin, Edward J.

Edward J. Aubertin, 66, passed away after a life long battle with Crohn's Disease and a courageous war with cancer in his Mountainville home, among family and friends.

Ed grew up in Lansdale and was the son of the late Frank and Claire (Schafenacker) Aubertin. He was the loving husband for 42 years to his wife, Kathleen (Enright) Aubertin. Ed was a wonderful fun loving father to his son, Brian. He was active with Big Brothers of America and KidsPeace for many years and also was a Foster Parent of a daughter, Tamera Rice of Vermont, who will always remain as part of the family.

Ed worked for America Olean Tile Company, Quakertown; Elm Terrace Gardens Retirement Community, Lansdale and the Lehigh Valley Hospital, Allentown. Ed's wishes were to donate his body to the Humanity Gifts Registry so that he may continue to help others.
