

Gauthier, Helene McCool

Helene McCool Gauthier died March 18, 2017.

Born July 19, 1937 in Philadelphia to Leo J. and Helen (Gillooly) McCool. She grew up in Lansdale and graduated from Little Flower High School, now Lansdale Catholic. She graduated from St. Mary's School of Nursing in Philadelphia. She spent her long nursing career first as a pediatric nurse and then as an intensive care nursery nurse. She married Jean Paul Gauthier in May 1970 and they lived in New Jersey for many years and in retirement returned to the North Penn area.

She is survived by her husband. She is also survived by her brother Joseph (Margo) McCool, of Denver Colorado, and her sisters Bernadette (John) Walsh, of Salfordville, Virginia Klingler, of Schwenksville, Kathleen Kearney, of Lansdale, and Elizabeth (Robert) Stanton, of Columbus, Ohio. She is also survived by sixteen nieces and nephews, their spouses, and numerous great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Leo.

Helene loved spending time with her large extended family and gardening, reading and doing all kinds of puzzles.
