

Geddes V, William F.

William F. Geddes V, 62, died Wednesday, February 29, 2012 in Phoenix, AZ. Recently, he had lived in Harleysville, PA, but most of his adult life was lived in Arizona and Missouri.

Bill graduated from Lansdale Catholic high school in 1967. He was a Master Machinist, a profession he loved practicing all of his life. An avid science fiction buff, he also pursued his favorite hobby of coin collecting.

He is survived by his wife, Deborah, of 30 years and three children from a previous marriage, Joshua S. Geddes, William. F. Geddes and Keri Geddes Barnhart. He is also survived by two sisters, Carol Geddes Stickley, Sally Geddes Wynne and two brothers, John M. Geddes and Scott T. Geddes.

A private celebration will be held by the family.
