

Grubb, James P.

James P. Grubb, of Ellicott City, MD, died Thursday, February 15, 2018, after a long illness.

Jim graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School in 1967 and served as a Corpsman in the US Navy from 1969 to 1973. After leaving the Navy, he married his high school sweetheart, Cheryl Ann Farina (class of 1968), in March 1974. Jim and Cheryl moved to Ellicott City for employment opportunities. They adopted three children: Alaina, Ryan, and Tessa.

Jim was preceded in death by Cheryl, who passed away on February 16, 2011, nearly seven years to the day before Jim's death. In addition to his children, Jim is survived by four grandchildren,

A memorial service will be held at the chapel in the Church of the Resurrection, 3175 Paulskirk Dr., Ellicott City, MD on Saturday, Feb. 24, at 11:00 AM. Jim's family thanks everyone "for all the love and prayers."

This memorial tribute is based on information posted on Facebook by Jim's daughter, Jim's autobiographical sketch for our reunion class book, and the obituary for Cheryl Ann Grubb.
