

Polomski, Blanche Lutcavage August 16, 2016

Blanche Polomski, 68, of East Avenue, Mount Carmel, passed away Tuesday at home.

Born in Shamokin, March 9, 1948, she was a daughter of the late Walter and Dorothy Horan Lutcavage. She was also preceded in death by a sister, Charlotte Madison.

She graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School and worked for many years as a supervisor for Packing Resources until she retired.

Surviving are her husband, Edward Polomski, Mount Carmel; a daughter, Tammy Frasch, Mount Carmel; a son, Jim, husband of Jessica Robenolt, Trevorton; a sister, Maria, wife of Jim Birster, Locust Gap; three grandchildren, Sara Robenolt, Zachary Robenolt and Piper Frasch; two great-grandchildren, Kayleigh Troutman and Xander Poe; nephews, Peter, Jimmy, Christopher and Jimmy.

In accordance with Blanche's wishes, there will be no services. Willard A. Rothermel Funeral Home, Mount Carmel, is in charge of arrangements, Ray Rothermel, supervisor, and Charles Heizenroth III, funeral director