

Patricia A. Salone—9/26/2015

Posted on September 29, 2015

Patricia A. Salone, age 70, of Hatfield died Saturday afternoon in the emergency room at Abington Health Lansdale Hospital in Lansdale. She was stricken ill at her home in Hatfield and administered to and transported to the hospital by the Volunteer Medical Service Corp.

Born in Lansdale, she was the daughter of the late John A. and Bertha Smith Schmitt. She has been a lifelong resident of the North Penn area.

Patricia graduated from St. Stanislaus Elementary School in Lansdale and Lansdale Catholic High School, class of 1963.

She had worked at the Harriet Carter Company in Montgomeryville in catalogue sales.

Patricia had been a member of St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in Lansdale.

Surviving is her beloved husband of 49 years, Frederick J. Salone. her two loving sons Nicholas J. Salone and his wife Erin of Souderton and Michael F. Salone and his wife Sveta of Telford and her four precious grandchildren: Tyler, Nicky, Chanse and Kianna.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend her Funeral Mass on Saturday, October 3rd at 10:30 AM at St. Stanislaus Church, 51 Lansdale Ave., Lansdale, PA. 19446 where the family will receive friends Saturday from 9 to 10:15 AM. Interment private at a later date.

For those desiring, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Patricia's memory to National Centre for Padre Pio, P.O. Box 206, Barto, PA. 19504 would be preferred.

Simcox-McIlvaine