

Struble, Theresa M. (Steinhauser)

Theresa M. Struble of Chalfont passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 25, 2018 at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was 56.

Born in Philadelphia she was the daughter of William and Marie Geppert Steinhauser.

Theresa graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School and went on to attend Kutztown University. She was employed for many years with Snap-on Tools and was most recently working for Movers Specialty Services as a Customer Account Associate. A self-proclaimed “Dead Head” she attended Grateful Dead concerts over the years with her friends. She enjoyed family trips to Ocean City and will be remembered for her free spirited nature and her infectious smile and laughter.

Most of all, the center of Theresa’s world was her son, John. For her watching him grow up into a young man brought her more pride than anyone could imagine. She will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. “Love will see you through.”

In addition to her parents, Theresa will be missed by her son, John Struble and his father, Stan Struble. She also leaves behind her brothers, Bill Steinhauser (Renie) of Lansdale, John Steinhauser of Skippack and David Steinhauser of Chalfont; her nephew, William Steinhauser (Amber); her niece Stephanie Steinhauser; her great-niece, MaryLou and her faithful chocolate lab, Baer.
