

WAGENHOFFER, KARL

Karl J. Wagenhoffer, 50, of Perkasio, died early Thursday morning [November 11, 1999] at the Lansdale home of his parents, Karl and Brigitta (Weber) Wagenhoffer. He had been in failing health for 16 months. Formerly of Lansdale, he had lived in Perkasio since 1993.

Mr. Wagenhoffer was born in Germany. He graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School, Class of 1967, and attended Drexel University in Philadelphia for three years and Delaware Valley College in Doylestown for one year. He was employed as a tool and die maker by Gasboy in Lansdale for six years until he became ill.

Mr. Wagenhoffer was a member of St. Stanislaus Church in Lansdale.

He enjoyed motorcycling, golf and the outdoors.

Besides his parents, he is survived by three sons, Karl Wagenhoffer III, Eric Wagenhoffer, and Nathan Wagenhoffer, all living with their mother, Karl's former wife, Clare Wetzel, in Gordon; one brother, Frank Wagenhoffer, and his wife, Carolyn, of Lansdale; and nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday afternoon at Mary, Mother of the Redeemer Catholic Church in Montgomery Township. Arrangements are by the Simcox-McIllvaine Funeral Home in Lansdale.
