

Wright, Kitty Sue (Hummel)

My sister, Kitty, passed away in Feb 2014. Her family misses her so much! I am honored to have been asked to write her bio. ---Kitty's sister, Theresa Hummel-Krallinger

In 1966, Kitty met the love of her life, Carl Wright – a senior at Hatboro-Horsham HS. Shortly after high school graduation, they were married and moved to Lancaster County. A year later, they were blessed with their first child, Carl, Jr. In 1970, they had a daughter, Tara Lynn, and in 1972, another son, Joseph.

They became very active in their church, and felt a calling to become missionaries. Their studies moved them to several states including Mississippi, upstate New York, and Virginia. Both Kitty and her husband completed their studies and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Religion from Liberty University. They eventually settled in Hampton, Virginia, where they raised their three children. Kitty was very active in teaching Bible school at her church and conducting Bible studies at the local prison.

Eventually, they made their way back to Pennsylvania, buying a house in Willow Grove. Kitty and Carl became active members of Horsham Bible Church. She was a member of the choir (and had a beautiful voice!) and often lead Bible studies. She and Carl returned to school to attain their Master of Arts Degree in Spiritual Counseling from Biblical Theological Seminary in Hatfield.

Kitty deeply loved her three kids and eleven grandchildren. She always had “fur kids” as well – dogs and cats, that were an integral part of the family. She was an avid Phillies fan. A very competitive game player, she loved card games and Scrabble, and online games. She had a great sense of humor and an infectious laugh. She had a great love of food and a love of family.

Over the years, she suffered from numerous health problems that really became problematic in her later years. Sadly, she passed away in February of 2014 at the age of 64. Her husband, Carl, also passed away in May of this year (2017.)
