

Dennis P. Viall April 27, 1959 - February 10, 2021

Dennis P. Viall, 61, of Lansdale, died Wednesday, February 10, 2021 at his home. He was the husband of Lisa (Guarnere) Viall for 40 years.

Born April 27, 1959 in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Donald and Barbara Viall.

Dennis was a 1977 graduate of Lansdale Catholic High School.

Dennis was a long-time employee in sales at BQ Basement Systems in Erdenheim, PA. He was an interior designer for most of his life and loved sharing his creative talents with everyone.

His wife, daughter, and grandson were his whole life. He and his family traveled extensively, especially cruising to tropical and European locations.

Because of his love of the island, he developed a collection of various palm trees to make his home like a tropical retreat.

Dennis has a presence that wasn't easily forgotten. Because of his joyful nature and the fact that he loved without judgement, it made everyone feel good when they were around him.

Dennis was larger than life and will live on forever.

Surviving with his wife is his daughter, Alyse Garrett (Adam Maco); grandson, Jaxon; siblings Brian Viall (Laura), Tim Viall, Robert Viall (Michele), Barbara Ann Milne (Chris); sister-in-law, Bonnie Tharby ; and 17 nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother, Donald Viall Jr.

A virtual memorial service will be held at 2:00, Saturday, February 27th. Please click the link below to view the service.
