

Mark J. Kasnel

Mark J. Kasnel of Perkasio died Friday, June 15, 2012, at Grand View Hospital, West Rockhill Township. He was 60.

He was the fiancé of Patricia A. 'Tish' Flexer.

Born in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Matthew and Maria Kasnel. He was a 1969 graduate of Lansdale Catholic High School.

Mark worked as a welder for Cemcolift, Hatfield, Pa. Prior to that, he worked for Tubular Products, Souderton, and Lenape Tooling, Inc., Perkasio.

Mark enjoyed traveling throughout the country observing trains and photographing them in many scenic locations. He enjoyed operating model trains and had a collection of transportation memorabilia. Most of all, he enjoyed helping people however he could.

Surviving with his fiancée are two sisters, Cecelia B. Niemi of Juneau, Alaska and Catherine C. Kasnel of Perkasio; three nieces and nephews; and five great-nieces and nephews, along with Tish's family, including two sisters, three brothers, many nieces and nephews, and many close friends.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, June 21 at the Bernard Suess Funeral Home, 606 Arch St., Perkasio. Relatives and friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday and from 10 to 11 a.m. Thursday at the funeral home. Interment will be in St. Agnes Catholic Church Cemetery, Sellersville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 480 Norristown Rd., Suite 150, Blue Bell, PA 19422 or the Perkasio Historical Society, 513 W. Walnut St., Perkasio, PA 18944.
