

Daniel John Loburak

NOV. 18, 1944 – OCT 26, 2023

Daniel J. Loburak of Deerfield Beach, Florida passed away on October 26, 2023 at the age of 78 surrounded by his loving family. He was born November 18, 1944 in Lansdale, PA where he grew up. He was the son of John K, Loburak and Margaret Aufiere Loburak.

Dan graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School in 1962 and attended Temple University and Ursinus College.

Dan worked as an Operations Manager for Sun Oil Company for 33 years. He was responsible for terminal operations and the management of over 100+ truckers' daily schedules. His work locations took him from Marcus Hook, Delaware to Ft Lauderdale, FL, to Poughkeepsie, NY and lastly Exeter, PA. Dan received an award from Sunoco for never having taken a sick day in all his decades with the company.

Dan was a model train enthusiast, an avid boater, and a lifelong lover of dogs. He was highly skilled in home improvement and enjoyed renovating his own homes as well helping family with their projects.

Dan is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Susan Mulholland Loburak. Together they shared three children, Carolyn Nigro (Joseph), John Loburak (Maria), and Mark Loburak. They have five grandchildren, Jake Nigro, Nicole Nigro, Daniel Loburak, Sofia Loburak, and Lucas Loburak. He is also survived by his sister Carole Ann Zwick of Deerfield Beach, FL. Dan enjoyed his close relationships with numerous family members, friends, and neighbors.

The family would like to thank Pompano Health & Rehabilitation Center and Trustbridge Hospice for their care and compassion they showed Danny in his final days.
