

Frances Florence Sandusky

January 16, 1943 – May 17, 2025

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of our beloved Frances Muscarnero Sandusky, affectionately known by many names, including Franny, Francesca, Fran, Hon, Babe, Mom and Grandma Lady to her beloved grandchildren. Born on January 16, 1943, in Philadelphia, PA, Frances lived a life filled with love, joy, and compassion. She touched countless lives with her infectious charisma and boundless generosity, leaving an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She loved her job working for Frank Owens' State Farm Agency, Fran established herself as a caring and compassionate licensed agent, earning the respect and admiration of her coworkers and customers. Her passion was collecting bears and artist dolls. Fran was also an active member of the Precious Memories Doll Club, further showcasing her love for collector items. However, what mattered most to Fran was her family, friends, and her dogs, demonstrating her loving nature and dedication to those she held dear.

Fran was a devout Catholic who found great joy in volunteering for The Fair and Grandma's Attic. Her faith was a beacon of strength and guidance throughout her life, embodied in the verse from Proverbs 31:25-26, "Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue." Fran's life was a testament to this scripture, as she lived with unwavering strength, dignity, and kindness.

Fran is survived by her daughter, Linda (Eric) Davis; sister, Lorraine Stagg; son-in-law, Eric (Linda) Davis; grandsons, Kamron Konkel, Hunter Davis, and Tyler Davis. Granddaughters Shannon Phillips and Kourtney Hansen; step-daughter, Cindy Sandusky; daughter-in-law, Ella (Charles) Coderre; step-son, Charles (Ella) Sandusky; and step-son, Delano Jr. She is preceded in death by her father, Philip Muscarnero; mother, Florence Muscarnero; husband, Delano Sandusky; and son, George III.

Fran's life was of love, compassion, and generosity. Her vibrant spirit and zest for life will forever be remembered and cherished. We invite everyone who knew and loved Frances to share memories and upload photographs to her memorial page, as a testament to a life beautifully lived and a soul dearly missed. In Lieu of flowers you can donate to Hope For Life Rescue, 610 Jack Rabbit Road #3, Virginia Beach, VA 23451.
