

Anne B. Keck

November 17, 1937 - July 21, 2023

Anne Butruille Keck, age 85, passed away on July 21, 2023 in her Mechanicsburg home, surrounded by her family.

Born on November 17, 1937, in Doylestown, PA, Anne was the daughter of Elizabeth von Lohr Butruille and Frank N. Butruille.

Anne was a graduate of Little Flower Catholic High School (now Lansdale Catholic). Anne attended Woman's Medical College Hospital School of Nursing (now Drexel University College of Medicine), graduating with the class of 1959. Her career in nursing spanned a range of specialties with her passion in surgical nursing.

She was a beloved and dedicated servant in her church and community. As a member of Saint Katharine Drexel Catholic Church, her ministries included serving as a Eucharistic Minister, (taking communion to the sick at the hospital and in her parish), Pastoral Council, Prayer and Care Community (Care Givers Banquet), and Serra Club. Anne generously contributed to the Morningstar Pregnancy Service and Silence of Mary. She was involved with decorating the church for Advent and cared for the gardens around the church. She also prepared meals for the sick in her parish and volunteered at Saint Francis soup kitchen.

Anne was a member of the Penn Cumberland Garden Club where she served as their membership chairperson. In addition, she chaired an annual plant sale and was involved with the annual banquet.

Anne was a woman of many talents. She was known for her culinary skills and enjoyed hosting amazing family feasts and dinner parties with friends. Everyone enjoyed her delicious desserts but especially her chocolate chip cookies. She was skilled in needlework including sewing, knitting, and needlepoint.

Anne enjoyed traveling abroad to places including France, Ireland, England, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Australia, New Zealand and Israel. Closer to home, Anne and John would revisit long time favorite destinations of Williamsburg, VA and Deerfield, MA.

Anne is survived by her loving husband John G. Keck of 64 years, daughter Elizabeth Marcucci and her husband, Joseph Marcucci, daughter Molly Zarba, son Greg Keck and his wife, Barbara Keck, daughter, Susan Naddeo and her husband, Ron Naddeo and daughter, Jennifer Keck.

Anne is also survived by eight grandchildren, Peter Naddeo (Ayelet Singer), Mia Naddeo (Brian Galovic), Chelsea Davies (Gareth Davies), Laura Marcucci, Thomas Marcucci, Natalie Keck, Peter Zarba, Mary Zarba and great-granddaughter, Marley Davies.

Anne's survivors also include her brother John Butruille and sister, Odette Rossi. She was predeceased by sisters, Suzanne Considine and Mary Lou Blake. She was a loving Aunt to many nieces and nephews.

In keeping with the mission of Saint Katharine Drexel, Anne generously shared her time, talents, and treasure. She had a loving heart for all God's children. Anne's family, friends, and community will miss her dearly.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11:30 AM, Friday, July 28, 2023 at St. Katharine Drexel Catholic Church, Mechanicsburg. Visitation will be held from 10:00 AM until the time of services. Burial will take place at Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to St. Katharine Drexel Catholic Church, 1 Peter Dr., Mechanicsburg, PA 17050 or Hospice of Central PA, 1320 Linglestown Road, Harrisburg, PA 17110.