

Mary T. Cooper Obituary

Cooper, Mary T. (nee Drew) of Warrington passed away on Sat., Feb. 28th, at her home surrounded by her children. She was 89. She was the devoted wife of the late William G. Cooper III. Their marriage spanned almost 66 years. Born in Abington she was the daughter of Thomas and Mary (nee Kenny) Drew.

Proud graduate of Lansdale Catholic High School. She enjoyed monthly breakfasts with her friends from her graduation class of 1955.

A founding member of St. Robert Bellarmine parish. Mary was a member of the choir and several committees. She enjoyed being a member of the EP group.

A world traveler, Mary enjoyed visiting family in Ireland 13 times.

As a parent she was a Girl Scout Troop Leader, Den Leader for Cub Scouts and Archbishop Wood Marching Unit Band parent member.

As a grandmother and great grandmother, lovingly known as Mom Mom, she was a constant presence at school plays, ballet productions, soccer, lacrosse, baseball, field hockey and football games, wrestling matches, bowling matches and band concerts.

Loving mother of Mary Eileen Hunsicker (Jeff), William G. Cooper IV (Barbara), James Cooper (Jenny) and Robert J. Cooper (Kimberly). Sister of Margaret Drew and the late Daniel Drew.

She will be acutely missed by her children, 10 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Funeral Mass will be held Thurs., 11AM, St. Robert Bellarmine, 856 Euclid Ave., Warrington, PA 18976. Relatives and friends are invited to greet the family Thursday after 9:30 AM. Int. St. John Neumann Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions in Mary's memory to Monetary of the Holy Cross, 3111 S. Aberdeen St., Chicago, IL 60608 would be appreciated.

William R. May Funeral Home, Inc. – Glenside, PA