

Deborah Kulp-Hacker

Jun 16, 1954 — Aug 14, 2026

Deborah (Corrado) Kulp-Hacker, 72, of Doylestown, PA passed away on August 14, 2026.

She was born on June 16, 1954 in Lansdale, PA to the late Louis and Ida (Rotelli) Corrado.

Debbie earned her Masters in Business. She worked several year's at McNeil Science and Technology Center doing Accounting in Philadelphia, PA before raising her daughter.

Deb also worked for Clemens supermarket during her high school and college days. She then worked as the manager of the cafeteria at the Central Bucks School District for many years. Debbie continued to enjoy being around the people she worked with even after retirement.

Debbie was also the owner of Incredible Edibles. Her fudge was so good, that she won “Best of Philadelphia” in the fudge category in 1988. She even had a store in Skippack, PA where she sold her fudge and other chocolates she made.

Her grandchildren will forever remember the time she spent with them, especially the time at the shore.

She is survived by her husband, Roger Hacker; daughter, Heather Kulp; step-daughter, Kristin Hacker (Holly Tallone); two grandchildren, Tyler Curry (Alyssa) and Erin Bradley (Devin); one great-grandchild, Julian Bradley; and her sister, Patricia Marcello (Dennis).

A viewing will be held on Thursday August 20, 2026 at 9:30 a.m. at Huff & Lakjer Funeral Home, 701 Derstine Ave, Lansdale, PA 19446 with a funeral service to follow at 10:30 a.m. Interment will follow at St. John Neumann Cemetery.

Arrangements entrusted to Huff & Lakjer Funeral Home.

