Eugene "Gene" Anthony Giordano

Obituary

November 7, 2026

Eugene “Gene” Anthony Giordani, 73, passed away peacefully at Abington Hospital on November 7, 2026. He was born in Norristown and was a long-time resident of Montgomery County. He graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School as part of the Class of 1971, where he participated in the football program (his mother sewed medals of various saints into his uniform for extra protection while playing), and attended and completed course work at Montgomery County Community College.

Gene loved the Phillies and all Philadelphia professional sports teams. He could always be found watching the games on television or listening to them on the radio, but of course his favorite way to watch them was live at the ballpark.

He enjoyed doing jigsaw puzzles and was an avid reader (he had his own library of his favorite books, and a specific prayer book he deeply treasured). His other hobbies included growing and caring for his plants, and cooking meals.

Over the last few years, Gene had formed a great bond with his cousin and advocate, Stephanie (Anton) Lynch. They had gone on some adventures, such as ones of being two foodies checking out local diners.

Stephanie could also be found following Gene, reminding him whenever they were roaming the snack aisles of the local grocery stores that she was “attached to his hip” if he ever needed assistance, including getting things from higher shelves or carrying around their haul of goodies.

Stephanie also had a “Find Me” tracker on his phone, in case he decided he was done shopping and went to the front of the store to wait for her, but having forgotten to tell her.

Gene constantly inquired about family and friends, regularly asking about each member’s health, activities, and other goings on within the extensive number of relatives and friends he had.

Gene had a special love for his many cousins. He was fortunate enough to live right next door to six of them growing up and only be about one mile away from three more. He was very close to all of his cousins; he even escorted his youngest cousin, Caroline (Smetaniuk) Anton, down the aisle at church with her in six weddings, including Caroline's eldest daughter's wedding.

Gene was preceded in death by his parents, Francis and Teresa (Ciliberto) Giordani, as well as his brother-in-law Guy Skiffington and nephew-in-law Tyler Moyle.

He is survived by his sister Rita (Guy) Skiffington and brother Francis (Hope) Giordani, as well as his niece and nephews, Patrick Skiffington, Thomas (Gina) Skiffington, Michael (Susan) Giordani, Rita Giordani, Francis III (Heather) Giordani, and Richard (Charlene) Giordani.

He is also fondly remembered by his great nieces and nephews, Brianna (Amanda Triolo) Skiffington, Nicholas Skiffington, Christian Skiffington, Gianna (Kelsey) Gather (and their children Zayden and Blakey), Sophia Skiffington, Ryan Giordani, Nathan Giordani, Logan Giordani, Evan Kerr, Julianna Giordani, Hailey Giordani, Alyvia Rose Giordani, Taliah Giordani, Xander Giordani, and Alayna Giordani.

A Celebration of Gene's Life
